

Position Announcement

Director of Gift Planning

Orange County Community Foundation

Newport Beach, California

Reports To

Vice President, Philanthropic Planning & External Relations

Organization Profile

The mission of the Orange County Community Foundation (OCCF) is quite direct and simple: To Inspire a passion for life long philanthropy, Faithfully steward the intentions of our donors and Catalyze sustainable community impact.

OCCF is located in Newport Beach, one of many interesting cities within Orange County. This county has a very large population base of over 3.4 million people having broad diversity and a seismic list of businesses, educational institutions, health care facilities, tourist attractions, parks and seacoast attractions.

The Orange County Community Foundation works with generous individuals, families and businesses to improve life for the people who call Orange County home.

The Orange County Community Foundation is working to change their community—to make it more vibrant, healthier and stronger for all of its residents. They believe in people helping one another and in providing opportunities that have real impact.

Since their founding in 1989, the Orange County Community Foundation has granted more than $480 million to meet the needs of people in Orange County, the nation, and around the world. In just the past decade, the Foundation has granted $190 million to deserving local nonprofits and students seeking to further their education. They could not do it without their donors, who have seen a need and turned it into an opportunity.

OCCF has experienced dramatic growth with the leadership of Shelley Hoss, President, which has placed them as a stand-out among more than 780 community foundations across the nation. OCCF is currently the
